

Four Corners Development Group (FCDG) has released FCDG Snowday, a shoot-em-up game for the BREW platform. The blue marauders have invaded your turf, and must be eliminated!

Founded in 2001, FCDG is a software development and multi-media company with offices in San Diego, California, and Silver Spring, Maryland.

Four Corners Development Group is actively developing games for the BREW platform, and anticipates the release of multiple titles this year.
